

JANUARY UPDATE

What's happening?

God blessed our first Christian Non-Profit Advocacy meeting on January 28th. He's doing amazing things and is using people right here in our communities and state to accomplish His work. We appreciate everyone that came, Temple Baptist Church for hosting, and most importantly the sweet Spirit that showed up with His seal of approval.

C.P.R. for McDowell extends a special thanks to our elected officials who attended: Amy Moomaw (McDowell County Board of Education), Chris Allison (McDowell County Commissioner), and Ricky Buchanan (McDowell County Sheriff).

Below, you'll find the organizations that presented. If you are not aware of them, please take the time to look them up (links below), you will not be disappointed you did!

We received many requests and positive feedback for another meeting. We will be praying and most likely planning for another meeting this year for McDowell & Caldwell County. Please help us pray about it!

So loved He the world that He gave us His Son,
Who yielded His life an atonement for sin,
And opened the life gate that all may go in.”
